

Do you feel physically and emotionally safe and secure?
Would it help to talk to someone?

The Jewish Taskforce Telephone Support Line is a community service committed to healthy and safe relationships for adults, teen-agers and children.

We provide:

- A confidential, anonymous and free service
- Trained telephone responders who understand the values and diversity of our community
- A non-judgemental, empathetic and supportive response
- Reinforcement of your rights to remain safe
- Appropriate information and referrals

EVERYONE has the right to feel safe within the home, the community and the workplace...
